“ To the Babbitt family,

I was stunned to see Pat's name in the most recent issue of the Dartmouth alumni magazine. I don't usually read the list of alumni passings, for some reason I saw it this month and noticed Pat's name.

I roomed with Pat and two other guys (4 of us in a triple, to save money) during our junior year at Dartmouth, and certainly he was a good friend all four of our years there. Always happy and fun, sometimes serious, Pat was a great friend who loved the outdoors and his WI roots -- and a good time.

I was so sorry to read of his passing, and know he is missed. My (belated) sympathies and best wishes.

“ Jade and I are sorry to hear of Pat's passing. We enjoyed getting to know him those Saturday's in the Avoca Reading Room. He was going to read all the biographies from start to finish and was working his way thru the A-Z mystery writer. He was a very interesting man and we were lucky to meet him. “ Janet Janet and Pat, Pat and Janet, the two names will always go together in my mind.

I can hear Pat's voice clearly. His witty, hearty voice oft times full of irony.

There was that time when we were all part of a very special clan.

I won't forget it ever.

And you will see him again.

Love and kisses,
Suzee and Steve

“ Janet: I was shocked and saddened to hear about Pat. He and Larry went through so many illnesses and even cardiac rehab together and now for them to pass so close together is not believable. Take care of yourself. You will need to stay strong to get through these next few months. Talk with you later. K

“ Long ago and far away Pat and I were friends. We played football and hunted together. When I was in service, while stationed at Ft. Devens MA. I visited him at Dartmouth and we hunted and fished in the Dartmouth Grant. He had other friends of the era of High School. Bob Panthofer, Jack Raymond and Todd Martin. Bob and Jack were fellow football players who remember the famous quote by coach Geske (deceased) " Babbitt you have legs like rubber bands" Pat was our center and the core or our line. I played on his left and Bob on his right. Bob, Todd and I also hunted with Pat and we all went in together on a MEC JR. reloader for shotgun shells. Wonder where that ended up, but I digress. I knew Pat as a sensitive, intelligent and very happy funny friend who on the night before he left for Dartmouth, we spent all night walking the Village of Shorewood and talking about our futures. I hope his life was all he wanted it to be. I think the pictures confirm that. I know his other friends, Bob, Todd and Jack have great memories as well and share in this effort at condolence. I know he was much too young, but a good life lived, even young, is worthwhile. I know Pat didn't do things half way so he left behind a legacy that will keep him alive in memory forever. It is ironic that I was just thinking about him recently. Life has a funny way of tapping us on the shoulder sometimes. If you ever want more information about his high school adventures please feel free to contact me.

I remember our pledge to stay friends forever. Good Bye Pat, till we meet again.

“ Janet, I am very sorry for your loss. Sometimes we don't realize what an impact someone has had on another's life until they are gone. I will always remember the fun times I had as a kid with you and Pat; including the first tree I ever planted, the first time I ever had a morel mushroom, first time ice fishing and the first time fishing from a boat just to name a few. I am the person I am today partly because of the time I was able to spend with Pat. Again, my deepest sympathies.

I was so sorry to learn of Pat's sudden death. He was one of my favorite classmates as we always had a lot to talk about---books and traveling, especially. His sense of humor really made the class fun. He is sadly missed by all of us who knew him. Confident that Pat is in the care of his creator...Cathy Van Landuyt
