“ Patty, Ashley, Jason and family,

I've been thinking of you often with sadness. It's heartbreaking to image how all of your lives have been changed so tragically . I didn't know Ben well, but my sons, specifically Max really liked Ben. Max recalled over the weekend, just recently speaking with him.

Wishing you all peace and comfort in the memories you can always hold close.

Hugs, Linda Sebranek

“ My deepest sympathies to your family. I enjoyed, and looked forward to working with Ben. I have fond memories of the conversations we had while we worked. The fishing, hunting, and his vacation stories. A short after work conversation would last no less than an hour. I will miss him a lot.

With deepest sympathy.

“ To all of the Wheelock family, but especially Patty, Jason, Ashley and Jeanne. I am very sorry for the loss of Ben. I enjoyed listening to Ben's fishing stories. My favorite was when Ted would talk about the trip Ben got to go on to Canada. Just loved how excited and joyful Ted would be talking about that trip with Ben and how he sat there and caught fish after fish. Again I am sorry for the loss of Ben.
