“ I loved spending summers at your parents farm. I was the youngest kid. We picked pickles. My mom, Dee & I dug up potatoes. I loved playing at the old time school house across the street, looking at those vintage books & climbing up top to ring the school house bell. I wasn't a fan of that trunk in the farm house, located I believe front door foyer. I was locked in it, freaked me out. Linda & my mother Dee enjoyed each others friendship. God Bless Them. Great memories. Sr is at peace. Prayers to all of his family, Deans daughter, Jackie (Miller) Garbe 🙏
