“ Mom and I would go to Madison to shop from Richland Center. To start the trip off, we would jam out to foreigner the whole time. Still to this day my song for her is hot blooded. I love you mom ♡

“ To the family and friends of Candy Lynn Hamm, another Comrade has been called to the high command. She has gone to the commander of us all. We will be present to Honor the memory of one that had offered her service to our country in a time of national need, who is now enrolled in that great spirit army whose footfalls cause no sound. But in the memory of man, their souls go marching on. Because of them, our lives are free, because of them the world is blessed. Our deepest condolences from Bower-Gunnill-Dalton VFW Post 2267, Richland Center, WI.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Candy's passing! I have been her hairstylist for several years now. She was a pleasure to be around, and always talked about her grandchildren. You have my deepest condolences ❤️

“ Mom was amazing at hide-and-seek. When we were younger she once turned off the lights in the house and hid on the top shelf of a closet. We looked and looked. We finally cheated and turned on the lights and still couldn't find her. After we finally called out that she won we found her by the giggling fit. We were determined that we would find her next round. Failure was inevitable. She hid between the mattresses.

Mom was creative. She was flawed. She made mistakes. But her heart was endless and there wasn't any line she wouldn't cross for her kids or grandkids. May you find peace mom. I love you more than words can convey.
