“ David Cooper: My first friend.

*I just heard of David's passing. It filled me with sorrow. He was my first childhood 'playmate'. We would play army, each of us hiding around our houses on our sides of the little creek that ran through Loyd., yelling "bang, bang". I remember playing in the "cave" over by his house formed by the roots of a blown down pine tree. We played around that cave a lot. We were about the same age and we talked about almost everything with each other
I remember him coming over to play pool for hours upstairs in our house listening to Kenny Rodgers, Elton John, the Beachboys. I have many memories of Dave. While we seldom saw each other as adults, I will miss him. I was blessed to be able to call him my friend.*
