Dad,

There's not a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I still tell my girls stories and they remember the fishing trips you took them on. Although you're gone, you are never forgotten. The last 2 years of your life was the closest we were and I cherish the talks, laughs, and jokes we had. You said you were proud of me and were happy I left to become something. I sure did and so grateful my business is booming. I love you always. Your loving daughter in Indiana.
