“ Joann and family, I am so sorry for your loss. My memory of Dean is talking to him at the Black Horse Auction in Arlington about farming and with Joann about baking and cooking. Dean had a wonderful smile and a great laugh and I will miss it. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and yours.

“ Will never forget how helpful Dean was back in 97 when we were getting the zoning for this old school house and all our chats on Prairie road when Dean would stop in his pickup truck when I was taking a walk. We would shot the breeze for a bit. He was a good Christian man that worked hard. May God comfort his family in this great loss.
