“ Karen, Todd, Grant, Nevin, and Rachael; so sorry for the loss of Uncle Don. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

I remember the days out at the farm in Alliance with the whole family. Riding the dune buggy up and down the hills behind the barn. Many good memories.

Him and dad were two peas in a pod. I am sure they are already up to no good up in Heaven. :)

“ May Mr Hillegass RIP. I did not know him personally; however, I am lucky enough to know two of his sons and judging from them - Mr. Hillegass was a loving father and raised a strong family. Nevin and Grant I am so sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers and I pray for healing for you and your families.

“ I remember Donald and I chaperoning many field trips during Rachel and Kristins grade school years. The best one was the over night to Camp Timberlee. Donald had to spend the night with a bunch of 7th grade boys, while Rachel got to stay with me and Kristin.

My heart goes out to your family. Remember all the good times!
