One of Don's hobbies was his ability to turn a piece of wood that he created in his extraordinary workshop, into anything especially his eagles displayed throughout the country. He was an avid Packer fan to the point where family events were never planned during game time. Wheel of Fortune & Family Fued were two shows he also enjoyed watching. Don and his wife, Jan appreciated the opportunity to travel across the United States with family while treasuring his last trip spent in New York with friends.

“ There isn't another man that is like my grandpa Don. He always had a great big smile on his face no matter what mood he was in. Gramps would do anything for any of his family members in a heart beat and I know I could always count on him for a nice quick chat, make eagles in his workshop, always providing ice cream, or just hanging out watching Family Feud. There is so many memories that I have made with him and I wish I could have had more time to make so many more. My heart will forever ache knowing you won't physically be at anymore Thanksgivings, Christmas's, Dance Recitals, Birthdays, Family Gatherings, or even when I just randomly stop over to just hang out with you. It will be so difficult continuing life without you being here. I know I will see you again one day, but until then keep soaring the skies with your eagles, and look over our family. You are deeply missed by each and every single one of us, and I wish you could have been able to see me grow into an adult, be at my wedding, and hold your great grandkids of mine. When those days come I will be thinking of you so much and know that you will be there in spirit. I miss you so much gramps and love you more than anything in the world. I hope Heaven is treating you like the king you are! When my day comes I will be up in Heaven with you so save me spot! I love you so much! Love, Abigail Marie! p.s Keep an eye on Grams for me please, I know she loved you so much and forever will. Don't forget to pick up the telephone in Heaven either, because we will be giving you calls so we can chat about how your day is going. I'm not going to say goodbye, but just a see you later. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!
