“ Wow! It saddens my heart to hear of Norman's journey to the afterlife. Memories of her and Skip letting me come over with the older kids to play cards and crack up with Barney Phife and Donald Duck. We would all laugh so hard we didn't care who won or lost. Last year we went to 7 funerals and hers is the first of this year for someone who was so close to me even though it hasn't been recently it feels like yesterday. I pray for comfort and healing. If you need to grieve do not be afraid. Grief is something I learned of last year. Some good Advice. Celebrate her life as she is now at peace and she wants us to remember her and that We shall do. Rest in Peace my friend and keep watch over those you loved. In Jesus Christ name I pray. Amen. Your eternal friend, Donnie Key

“ Tracy and Kelly, I really enjoyed the times I shared with aunt Norann. I have fond memories playing cards and talking to her at our family gatherings. Although they were very few as of late, they still hold a great place in my heart. I was able to catch up with her at my Mom and Pam's services. It was so nice to receive a hug and get a smile from her. Aunt Norann you will be missed. Please watch over us all. I love you and god speed! Love, Scott

“ Eleanor was one of the first persons I met when I moved to Richland Center almost two years ago, and she became one of the closest friends and confidants I've ever had in my life. I will miss her quick wit, positive attitude, and love of life. Our group had so many fun discussions and shared lots of laughter at our afternoon “coffee clutches”. Those times will not be forgotten, and our get-togethers won't be the same going forward. We all love you, Eleanor, and know you will be eavesdropping.
