“ I always liked Eleanor. She was very quiet but always had this smile on her face. I babysat her 3 oldest children when I was a teen. I always enjoyed going there. The kids were so well behaved; a sign of good parents. It is strange but she was in my thoughts just a few days before I heard she died.

“ *Having been friends with Donna since kindergarten, I spent a lot of time with the Astle family. Eleanor always welcomed me and treated me like another daughter. She was a sweet, kind lady who will be greatly missed. Thank you Eleanor for being a second mom to me.
You will make an awesome angle in heaven. I'm sure you will never be cold (she was always cold) and you will watch over us all. Love you all!*
