Ervin (Sandy) Mott, 89, of Richland Center, Wisconsin, passed away on September 9, 2025. Born on December 1, 1935, on a small farm in Richland Center, Sandy grew up working on his grandparents' farm, milking dairy cows and developing a lifelong passion for the land. After moving to Illinois with his mother, Bessie Anna Denman Mott-Lincoln, his brother, Frank Mott, and stepfather, Glen Lincoln, he returned to Wisconsin after high school to work the family farm, eventually purchasing it when his grandparents retired. Sandy married Cora Griffin on March 25, 1955, at the Buck Creek Church, and together they ran their dairy farm on Wheat Hollow.

Alongside his beloved wife, Cora, Sandy became a cornerstone of the Richland Center community, known for their generous support of local churches and charities. His farm, with its well-kept fields and fruitful orchards, was a cherished gathering place where friends and family from near and far came to share in harvests, hunt, fish, and create lasting memories.

Sandy was preceded in death by his parents, Ervin Mott Sr. and Bessie Anna Denman Mott-Lincoln, and his stepfather, Glen Lincoln.

Sandy's legacy of kindness, dedication, and love for his family and community will endure.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, September 12, 2025, at 10:00 AM at Clary Memorial Funeral Home in Richland Center with visitation from 9:00 AM until the time of the service. Officiant Dave Mott will officiate with burial in the Richland Center Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, we ask that you plant a fruit tree in memory of dad's love of his orchards or make a donation to St. Jude's. www.clarymemorialfuneralhome.com

“ I grew up going to Park Street Christian Church where both Sandy and Cora were pillars of strength and service for the Lord. I was so humbled by a conversation I had with Cora one Sunday when I was home, visiting from college in Milwaukee. She told me that she and Sandy had a bulletin board above their kitchen table and many senior photos were pinned to it, including mine. Cora held my hand in both of hers and told me that she and Sandy prayed for my brother and I every day. I was so tearful to contemplate the many perils the prayers of these faithful people had spared me. God bless, you Sandy, you have received your eternal reward for your deep faith in Jesus. I love knowing you and Cora are together again!

“ Sandy and Cora were close neighbors to my parents farm when I was growing up. They were great neighbors, Sandy and my Dad would always help each other when the need arose. I was fortunate to assist them when they came to the eye clinic, and always time for a quick update on the family. They were always hard workers. RIP Sandy; how wonderful that you and Cora have been re-united again.

“ Rest in peace Uncle Sandy, you were truly a kind giving soul. I remember as a child when we would visit grandma and grandpa and visit you and sweet Cora too. Some of my best memories growing up. My condolences to Steve and Ben and the rest of the family.

God Bless,
Cora Sue Halbur
