“ I especially have fond memories of grandma when I was a kid. My sister Stephanie and I would stay overnight on occasion. We would go with grandma to the milk house in the mornings, spend time in the garden in the afternoon, and back to the milkhouse in the evening. We also enjoyed the Easter egg hunts on Easter. Every year on my birthday (December 6), we would go to grandpa and grandmas. It was St. Nicholas Day and we would always find candy on the tree stump. These and many more memories help with the sadness of her loss, but I still miss her so much.

My prayers are with you, Lori, Melanie, and rest of family.

And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them." Revelation XIV, 13.

“ I will always remember Grandma's kindness, generosity, and love. My favorite time of the year at Grandma and Grandpa's was Thanksgiving. She was an amazing cook and my favorite dish was her noodles that she made every Thanksgiving for dinner. I now make them every year for our family to enjoy since I cannot imagine Thanksgiving without them. You will be deeply missed by many!! Lots of Love, Laretta Pickel and Family
