“ I remember when Gary was born. I was 7 then. I new him as he was growing up and even babysat him and his siblings. He usually gave me a hard time then, but when he grew up he was always nice to me. I knew of his struggles that he is now free of. I am sure God and everyone else in heaven will enjoy his quick humor. I will miss him.

My deepest sympathy to his mother and his siblilings and his children.
