“ Please accept my condolences of Helen's passing. She was such a kind and loving person. She was a Rock-Star on the Med-Surg floor. She always had a happy Hello for me and was always asking after my family. She loved everyone. She was a hard worker and was proud of that. I am truly blessed to have had little moments from time to time with her. I will miss her happy, shining personality on the Med-Surg floor. God Bless Helen, we will miss you so much. You are in our hearts forever. Laura Kast

“ For over 40 years, Helen Never missed giving or sending me a card on each holiday. The cards always related to friendship and hugs. Early in our friendship she thought I collected rocking horses so for each birthday and for Christmas she found and gave me a special rocking horse until one day at our monthly lunches, the subject came up and she said “you bought one wooden rocking horse when we were at a craft sale so I thought you were collecting them”. She was always in tune with the wants and needs of others. At our monthly lunches with, Mary Ellen, myself and sometimes DeeDee, we left and would hug and say Helen, you're in charge and she set up the next date. 2019 lunches will continue but NEVER be the same. We talked often and after my saying hello, I didn't have to say much else....Bob would look my way and say “is that Helen” and I would grin and shake my head yes. Oh, how I will miss our phone conversations. Not that I would ever find my way around Richland County because I'm very directionally challenged....Helen knew every road, nook and cranny and tried to explain or pick me up and drive us, especially for the RC parade of homes. Praying for Chuck, Konya and family and hoping for snow so we can build her a snowman. Hugs Sharon

“ To Family of Helen,

Helen worked so hard all those years as a CNA, but also donated her time to many charities in the community. Helen would also pay her respects to families that had lost a loved one or either knew real well. And perhaps a patient she had taken care of.

Helen and I also shared the same Aunt Clary Luttig Fowell. Clara was a sister to Helen's Uncle Luttig. Clara was married to my mother's brother, Shorty Fowell. Small world.

I do a lot of art work and when I'm finished I put it on Facebook. My last painting I put on Facebook was an Angel in a frame. On the 22nd of December 2018, I got a message from her saying " Oh Deb, that is just beautiful". Well, I know where that painting is going.

I hope someone in the family would enjoy it as a memory of Helen.

I know how Helen was missing her son, as Helen and I shared the same tragedy. Helen and I would write back and forth of how we were feeling about losing our son or daughter. We both would comfort each other talking it out or with some poems.

Helen, I will miss your advise on many subjects.

On this Christmas Day I think of you as that Angel. Peace and Love to Family and Friends.

With All My Love

“ Helen Luttig Sheafor was a sweet, loving and loyal. We were classmates and because we were both farm girls, we became good friends. We kept in touch over the years during class reunions and always got together to share family happenings when Dan and I came back to Richland Center to visit my dad and step mom. I will miss her, but I know that she is with her Kory and her mom and dad. Our condolences to Chuck, Cathy and all the family. She was so involved with all of you, so I know your pain will be great. May you find rest and peace in the fact that she is with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ Ah Helen, What can I say, I've been working with you for maybe 20 plus years and everyday was a hoot!! Yes, we were always professional in our respective jobs but we still had time to share about what was happening in our lives. A top notch CNA who always loved her job and the people she worked with. We will miss you Helen !!!
