

Joe "Winston" Sabin

February 8, 1940 - August 27, 2017

Joe "Winston" Sabin died peacefully at Pine Valley Community Village in Richland Center on August 27th at the age of 77. Joe was born on February 8th, 1940 in Racine, WI. He graduated from UW-LaCrosse in 1963 with a BA in Recreation Administration and from UW-Madison with a MA with an emphasis in Reading Instruction. He met his wife Janice 58 years ago at a local dance, because, as he explained later, he "liked her looks". He was a generous and loving husband. Over the years, Jan and Joe moved to Madison, Los Angeles, and then settled back in Richland Center, his hometown, where he worked as a reading specialist at area schools for 29 years. While working there he wrote multiple professional books on teaching reading in elementary schools and his school district was rewarded best in the nation for reading programs. However, Joe's real love was cars. He loved to rebuild and customize cars and spent much of his off time attending and producing car shows. Mustangs were a personal favorite. Joe was a true animal lover, especially cats, often taking in and feeding strays from the neighborhood. Joe was an excellent support system for his daughters, and showed them he loved them by calling many times a day and showing up unannounced at their dorm rooms, apartments and houses. He was a favorite Dad among their friends as he would love to take the groups of kid's roller skating, to movies and for ice cream.

Joe is survived by his wife, Janice; children, Heather Sabin (Chris Pauls) and Kira Sabin (Daniel Bladl).

He is preceded in death by parents Raymond and Geneva Sabin and Brothers John and Robert.

A Celebration of Joe's Life will be held on Thursday, August 31, 2017 at 6:00 PM with visitation from 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM at the Clary Memorial Funeral Home in Richland Center with reception to follow. Rev. Craig Peach will officiate with the ceremony. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Joe's life. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Ocooch Mountain Humane Society at PO Box 229, Richland Center, WI 53581. The family would like to thank Pine Valley Community Village staff, including Dr. Smith, and Philomena Poole for their dedication. On line condolences can be made at www.clarymemorialfuneralhome.com

“ I will cherish the interesting conversations and often hilarious stories I had with Joe. In the Sabin house I have always felt unconditional positive regard and that is a very rare feeling. Joe lite up any room with his spunk. Joe was a Joy. I am thankful to Joe for taking in stray kitties and sometimes stray humans like me. There are families we are born with and then their are families that we choose, the Sabin's are that for me. Whenever I smell car wax I will forever think of Joe. Blessings and Peace to Jan, Heather & Kira and may your memories make you smile and giggle. Joe was a good man, thank you for sharing him with us.

“ You all are in our prayers. When I think of Joe, I remember a kind, caring man that always had a smile. And, of course, was never far from his dear cars!

“ Joe always was fun, interesting, and eclectic guy. He loved a good story and cars. When I would return to RC we would have a great visit at his hangout the Country Kitchen.z
We both had 1950 Fords, in the day, and when Mueller's had a parts car we would try to get the parts first. Joe had the inside track and most of the time found the part I needed ahead of me. He would then sell it to me for a nice profit and a sly grin. Rest In Peace old friend. Darwin Waldsmith
