

John Roland Fry

June 19, 1967 - February 7, 2024

Heaven gained another angel today. John Roland Fry, 56, of Menasha, WI, formerly of Lime Ridge, WI, passed away at the Bethel Assisted Living in Menasha on Wednesday, February 7, 2024, with family by his side. He was born on June 19, 1967, in Hillsboro, WI, the son of Roland and Margaret (Bovenmyer) Fry. John worked at Hardee's while in school and continued to work with them until they were taken over by Burger King. He started out as a cook and went into management. He helped open many stores throughout Wisconsin. He took a break for a few years to own and manage his own small grocery/restaurant in Lime Ridge, WI, "The General Store". Then returned to Burger King until his illness forced him to quit. John was also known to do public speaking around southwest Wisconsin.

John is survived by his sister, Shirley (Rick) Hohler of Richland Center, WI; 2 brothers, Walter (Tammie) Fry of Cazenovia, WI, and Andrew Fry of Tomah, WI; Special niece and great niece, Amanda and Anna Sina of Chilton, WI; several nieces, nephew, other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Roland and Margaret Fry; and a niece, Ashley Fry.

A celebration of life will be held by the family at a later date. The Clary Memorial Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements. www.claryme

“ We met John around 15 years ago through his partner Donny Oldenburg and a rural LGBT fellowship group called Southwest Wisconsin Pioneers. John was a well-known figure in his community of Lime Ridge. He was a role model and educator for young people in our area, as an out and proud gay man and person living with HIV/AIDS. He was a devoted son and caregiver to his mother Margaret, who died around this time two years ago. He was a kind, gentle, caring, funny guy and was a good friend to us. We will miss him.
