“ Sweetheart,
Words can't explain how much I miss you, it has been a year and it is really hard to accept that you are really gone it seems like yesterday. Everyday has been a struggle.
I stare at you pictures and treasure are memories . I miss your voice, your smile, your blue eyes, your touch, your solid advice, you phone calls and your kind and conforing words.
I never could imagine my life with out you, it is very hard and I miss you so much.
I know you are in God's House and I cant wait to see you .

Love you so much

“ As we gather together tonight at your house, on the one year anniversary of your journey to Heaven, we will remember all of the good times we have shared. Your companionship was so important to all of us, and we miss you very much. We are still making warm memories in your honor, thinking of you daily. Your new grandson has entered the world, and I can't wait to share you with him- although you probaby have met him in Heaven. :) We all love and miss you. Sending a coupla of lanterns up tonight...you should see it soon from where you are. Love, Elizabeth and family.

“ I'm remembering you today with love and fond memories. After a year without you, your quiet character and good humor reigns in my heart and always will. Thank you for gracefully allowing me to call you 'dad' for those years I was without mine and accepting me for who I am. We celebrate you today and share a French silk chocolate pie in your honor. Looking forward to seeing you again someday, smiling and enjoying a body that never hurts or gets sick ever again. Love you. Mary.

“ Just like every other day of the week, we are thinking of you Dad. I know you are with us in more ways than one. When Tommy comes to me saying "Grandpa is visiting tonight", we know you are right here and we smile. I know you can see Tommy, how big he has gotten and all that he has accomplished in the last year. I bought him the Gingerbread House from you~he was so happy to see that I remembered~I will always remember! We will build it together and think of you. I am so happy that I can throw in a DVD and there you are! I cherish those home videos of you. I will always be thankful for you Dad. WE LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU SO. Happy Thanksgiving~until we are together again.

“ I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday, and the day's before that too. I think of you in silence. I often speak your name. All I have are memories and a picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake, from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms. I have you in my heart!

“ Cristina el espíritu de John siempre te estará protegiendo, tu tienes una razón por que seguir adelante, tus hijos nietos ademas de todo el entorno de familiares y amigos que te aprecian por la lectura de sus pensamientos escritos en estas memorias. No tuve el honor de conocerlo a tu esposo John pero por los escritos leídos fue excelente persona. Que el señor Dios lo tenga en su gloria es mi deseo. Con gran aprecio y amor para mi sobrina Cristina. Su tío,

“ Cristina,
So many wonderful memories.....the weekends we spent together shopping with the fellas. Whether it was visiting the Frank Lloyd Wright homes, the Amish Furniture stores, etc. etc., then having dinner together. We will miss those peaceful moments, but know John is in a better place. You were a loyal devoted wife; he was lucky to have you and I think it knew it.
I am so glad you found each other and spent the best years as true companions.
We will all meet again, but in the interim, enjoy the life God has granted us.
With affection,

“ Dear Cristina~
John will be remembered by so many as a kind and gentle man. He used to wait quietly and patiently for you to finish work here. He always gave a bright engaging smile when spoken to. You gave him wonderful care for as long as I've known you. You were a role model, devoted and exemplary wife. You always give lovingly to those around you without question. Thank you for your reassurance while enduring much of the same with my mom recently. You should look back knowing you did anything and everything you possibly could. John left this world absolutely knowing that too. Now you can anticipate a joyous reunion in Heaven! There is still much hope:)

“ Cristi hermanita, lo lamento muchísimo, me da mucho dolor que ahora no tengas más la compañía de John, imagino lo sola que te debes sentir, no sabes cuanto me gustaría poder estar allá contigo, espero que Dios te de mucha fuerza y voluntad para seguir adelante. Sabes que John está más tranquilo con Dios, está descansando y seguro quiere y espera que descanses tu también. Cuando hablamos me dijiste que John quería conocernos y a nosotros también nos hubiese gustado conocerlo. Te quiero mucho y siento la partida de John aún más. Te mando un gran abrazo desde Caracas, Venezuela.

“ Uncle Jack, your smile will be missed as will your voice, I can still hear you saying "Hi Honey" on one of our phone conversations. You were my father's best friend and someone he looked forward to talking to just about every day. The family will grieve your passing but celebrate your life and the lives you helped bring into this world. You were a wonderful Uncle and I do not think I will ever be able to forget your birthday cake all those years ago that my eyes had to covered for ;o)

My prayer is that you are now resting comfortably in the arms of our Savior Jesus. I love you, Nicky

“ When I lost my Father, I lost the captain of my ship. It will be hard steering the course without you. I LOVE YOU DAD. I will remember our long talks on the deck, swimming in the river, laughing together, flying down the ski slopes and ice skating on the frozen lake when I was little. I knew it was the last chapter, I just didn't know how many pages that chapter would have. There is comfort in knowing you are at peace, without pain and in the arms of our creator and the family who were waiting for you.

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. John 14:18

Until we are together again.
