“ I will forever remember Jordan’s giant smile and giant heart. As saddened as I was to her of his passing, I feel very privileged to have met him and work with him. I am thankful that I was able to get to know him and will forever have fond memories of him. His hear was gentle and it touched all of his fellow Soldiers, including his leaders. He was the type of Soldier that I never wanted to punish, because he was just so damn nice. I will always picture him standing at my office door, with his huge smile and running shoes, looking for things to do when he could not work on the compound. My condolences go out to his family. But be proud that the young man you raised was a truly magnificent person that helped many a troubled Soldier through many difficult times. He was a battle buddy in the truest sense; in that he was unselfish and loving. I will be praying for you.

We would like to express that our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time at your loss. We were unfortunate in that we did not know Jordan, but he seems to have had a great deal of friends and family around him. Thank the Lord for giving him to you for a very short time.

“ I am very sorry for all of his family and very close friends. I didn't know him very well. He was a friend of my husband's and was in his unit. I do remember the first time that I met him he was very nice and made me feel welcomed. He would always have something good and nice to say about my husband Taji. i am very sorry for your loss. Sometimes when we are very special to God, he can't wait to have us with him. He will definitely be a guardian angel watching over us all.

“ I was overwhelmed with sadness when I heard. Jordan was always one of those guys you could count on to help you with whatever you needed whenever you needed. He was incredibly selfless and I could tell he really liked helping others. He was always happy, and always smiling. I remember one day at school I got a flat tire, he and another classmate of mine were all over fixing it before I even considered it a problem. He was always one of the firsts to dive in and fix things, and never made anything a big deal. His close friends and family is in my prayers, he was an amazing guy who will surely be missed.

“ Mckittrick, Jordan was a fellow soldier/friend of mine he always was positive and upbeat about every thing. He was also the only person I know who could break any and every thing. I deployed w/him to Iraq, and also trained and traveled with him prior to Iraq. So I spent alot of time w/him. He was a good guy with a good spirit. He has helped me out with my computer issues on many occasions. I cant think of any problems or negative encounters I may have had w/him because there were none. The world has lost a jewel of a person who missed the opportunity to grow and really experience life for him self, and I have lost a friend who will always be in my thoughts. My condolences to the whole family in this time of hardship. My you be blessed.

“ Jordy is by far the nicest person I've ever met. It didn't matter what situation, he was always willing to help, whether it be through advice, lending a hand, or simply a shoulder to lean on. I'll never forget the day we went and got your first tattoo. You were so nervous and even though it took forever, you endured the pain and were so happy with the outcome. You were and remain to be a part of my family.. I'll never forget you and I'm honored to have had the opportunity to have been so close to you. I love you and I'll miss you so so much. Prayers to your family.

“ As a fellow battle buddy, I take great pride in saying that I'm extremely privileged to have had the opportunity to serve with, and get to know Jordan. If ever anything needed to be done, exciting or not, he was the first to volunteer. I never heard him complain about anything. Further, he never took anything for granted, and always tried to savor the moment. I trust that the Lord has bigger plans for Jordan, and that Jordan is at peace. My thoughts and prayers go out to Jordan's family.
