“ I just learned that a great guy passed. Kevin and I were room mates several times in the 80's. He was such a good friend and confidante. I still think often of our escapades, our conquests and of course our tall tales. Rest in peace my old friend. You left way to early.

“ I just found out a few minutes ago about Kevin's passing. My prayers and condolences go out to all of his family and friends at this time of loss.

Kevin and I met each other on the first day of Kindergarten and spent the next twelve years through Grade School, Middle School and High School together, We were also neighbors, so we met with the kids around town for baseball games and races in the field behind the old High School.

Kevin had those sparkling blue eyes, kind heart and always a smile. I remember one squirrel hunting trip that Kevin took me on, I was not prepared for the cold and the waiting, and waiting, waiting and waiting, He was committed to the hunt and I was just a talkative girl. We didn't shoot one squirrel that day. What? No talking, whistling, running, whispering really? Needless to say, he never invited me to go hunting again,

What a beautiful tribute to Kevin's life in the photo montage. Had I known about Kevin's passing, I would have been among those attending to honor his memory. sympathies and comfort,

“ Dear Claire, Kate and Sarah,

Your world has stopped.

Your lives have forever changed.

We cannot know your pain, only remember what loss we have experienced in our own past. We pray for you this day and know that God weeps with you.

As your grief comes around again and again as time passes, may you know that God's strength is deeper than your sorrow. Know that you are not alone, and draw comfort from God's deep well.

Thinking of you and your family. We know Pastor Tom will be there for you and hope your friends at St. John's will rally their support as well God Bless and keep you. Ken and Jacqueline

“ I wrote this poem many years ago when my father passed away. I send this in hopes it will bring some comfort.

*Now when you think of Him...
Teardrops fill your eyes.*

*Your heart is full of sorrow...
Your voice with anguished cries.*

*But, there will come a time, I guarantee...
Though likely not for awhile.*

*That every time you think of Him...
You just can't help but smile.*
