“ So sorry for your loss. I lived on Haseltine street in the mid1960's. LaVerne (as I called him) would pedal my new bike with me riding on the handle bars and him singing "Hey! Hey! Good looking". He was a year older but, much bigger than me and my protector.

“ I haven't seen Lue in many years. I remember him well in the Kinder Haseltine neighborhood. Lue was good friends with my brother Ed. Like others have commented, I vividly remember his athletic talent and quiet demeanor. My condolences to the Nundahl family.

“ Sorry to hear of Lue's passing. I was always amazed by his athletic ability and kind heart. We drifted apart over the years but I still considered him a friend. God speed Lue.

So sorry for your loss, Kim. I know the two of you waited a long time to get married and remained married through the hard times. But you have many happy memories to share with your grand babies about Lue. Love you dearest friend.
