“ I babysat for Linda shortly after she lost her first husband. She wanted to find a babysitter & her good friend & my neighbor, Jackie Hall, gave Linda my name. She & her brother Larry went out on many a Saturday night while I watched (& played with) Rod, Brenda, & Shari, who was still a baby in the crib. Linda & I became good friends. She was always so kind to me & later on whenever I would see her she would never fail to ask me about my own family, & my parents. May you rest in peace Linda & my sympathy to the family

“ My grandma was the strongest and most loving woman I have ever known. She adored her grandchildren more than words could say. I'll never forget the bond my grandma and I shared. She always defended me when I was picked on and stood up for me when others couldn't hear me. My grandma was there for through my ups and downs of life. I'm just so thankful my grandma got to see me turn my life around and make her proud finally. I'm so thankful she got to be apart of the most special day of my life. I'm also thankful that I now have a special guardian angel to look over me and my unborn child and keep us safe. Thank you grandma for always being the world's best grandma. I will always love you and miss you.

“ Rod, Brenda, and Shari, I have such fond memories of your mom. Shari and I would always play euchre against your mom and my mom. We would always get to talking about my mom and dad's divorce and shamefully doing impressions of my dad. We would laugh to the point we'd cry and we were constantly asking "whats trump?"
