

Lucille Marie Stanek

October 17, 1926 - August 25, 2013

Lucille M. Stanek, age 86, of Hillsboro, died Sunday, August 25, 2013 at Pine Valley Healthcare & Rehabilitation Center in Richland Center after a 13 year long battle with cancer. Lucille was born on October 17, 1926 at home in Greenwood Township, Vernon County the daughter of Charles Sr. and Frances (Shema) Verbsky. On September 26, 1951 she married Edward W. Stanek at St. John's Catholic Church in Dilly, Wisconsin.

Lucille was a country gal at heart, believed in being a good neighbor, and loved and enjoyed nature. She was a long-time member of the Yuba-Hillsboro Czech Singers, and was listed as a Czech interpreter through the State of Wisconsin. She was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Hillsboro, St. Ann's Altar Society, Catholic Foresters, Samo Lodge 32, and Cesky Den. Lucille grew up on a farm during hard times in the 1930s and because of it, she knew the value of saving and conservatism. She attended Hillsboro High School during WWII, walking 2 miles every day just to meet the bus so she could go to school. She loved playing the coronet and truly enjoyed old time Czech polka dances with her beloved partner, Eddie, making many rounds about the dance floors of Yuba and Hillsboro.

Lucille worked hard next to Eddie on the farm, driving tractor in the fields, baling hay, cutting wood for winter and milking cows, and truly enjoyed doing so. She raised a huge garden every year, and supplied neighbors and friends with ground horseradish each spring and fall. Lucille always took pride in keeping her large lawn mowed. She had many hobbies from sewing, knitting and crocheting (selling many afghans) to refinishing furniture, chair caning, woodworking, preserving her garden produce, baking kolaches and rholiki, and picking out and selling hickory nut meats (as many as 88 pounds one year). She was also a blood donor. Lucille was always busy and enjoyed her life, church, family and friends until cancer took over in March. Her sly wit, grin, memories of long ago, and wisdom regarding any issue will be sorely missed by family, neighbors, friends, and especially by her "cookie-eating" hunting gang.

Survivors include her daughter, Mary K. Housner of Richland Center; a sister-in-law, Eleanor Verbsky of Elroy, WI; a brother-in-law, Donald (Lorraine) Stanek of Punta Gorda, Florida; sister-in-laws, Norma and Berniece Stanek both of Hillsboro; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, a brother Charles Verbsky Jr., nieces Joanne Stanek Duitsman and Susan Stanek Prats, nephews Francis Stanek and Steven Verbsky, and a great nephew Jesse Stanek.

A Funeral Mass will be held on Wednesday, August 28, 2013 at 11:00 AM at St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Hillsboro with Fr. Don Bauer officiating. “*Mary, my deepest sympathy at the loss of your mother. She was my confirmation sponsor. I picked someone with the perfect balance of honest and christian values that she applied to her life. Lucille and Eddie were good friends to ny parents, Ray and Louise Fronk. Many fun memories as we were children. “ My Sincere Sympathy on the passing of Lucille. She was a dear friend to my parents, Ray & Louise Fronk. I remember as a child, growing up visiting with Eddie & Lucille, and going to dances with my parents and the Staneks at the Yuba Opry House. (oh, fun times!!)

Even though the years have passed since those times, I was fortunate to see Lucille and Mary having breakfast one morning at Beezers, and low and behold we were able to catch up like ole' times----she had that lovely smile and personality that I will always remember!!

So, with that, I Wish to Light a Candle in the Memory of Lucille. I will remember her fondly!!!

“ Al has fond memories of Aunt Lucille, Uncle Eddie and cousin Mary, especially when he stayed at their home. My first memory of Aunt Lucille is when she dropped by to see our first baby, Amanda. I didn't know her well yet as I was still getting to know Al's large family in the first years of our marriage. Lucille was very warm and kind to me. I remember how she enjoyed the new baby and was so tender with her. I was not raised on a farm and was quite impressed with all the skills and talents she possessed. I was never more impressed with her abilities than when I observed the skill with which she could split wood even in her later years. I was amazed. Her independent spirit and strength of character are reasons I admire her as one of the strongest women I've known. But, it wasn't until I worked with her as election inspectors for the Town of Greenwood, that I got to know her spunk and humor. She was serious about her work at the election but she found plenty of time for fun. She liked to play tricks on the patrolman, Marvin Bell. It must have been fun for Marv to come to work the day following an election to see what surprises she had in store for him. We spent long days into the evening on election days. It was then that I really got to know and appreciate Lucille's wit and personality. And, she always treated us with her delicious hickory nut cookies. I remember her saying she always had some in the freezer in case the neighbor kids stopped by. I will especially treasure the things she shared with me about my husband's sister, whom I never knew. Aunt Lucille's affection for her was very evident when she spoke about her. She would smile and say, "Oh, that Joanne, she was a "Peach." I never visited with Aunt Lucille when she didn't speak of her beloved Eddie and her daughter Mary. Her love and devotion to her husband and her daughter, speak of the dedicated mother and wife that she was. It is with deep respect and fondness that I'll remember her. Lori Stanek

“ I went to visit with Lucille several months ago on a rainy Sunday afternoon. There was a welcoming fire in the stove and she and Mary were having lunch. As I sat on the sofa talking away, we laughed and shared memories. It was the most comfortable place I'd been in a long time, but that's how she made you feel every time. I hope she knew how much we loved her. My son Don always expected me to do everything Lucille did and just as well. I've always said that's not possible. She was one of a kind. What a wonderful person. I have been blessed too have known her for the past twenty years

“ Mrs. Stanek was not only the mother of my friend Mary, but she was also my friend. The first time I met her was when she and Mary picked me up from the Greyhound Bus stop in Richland Center way back in 1971. She was so welcoming, making me feel at home and her laugh was contagious.

Mrs. Stanek was so full of life. She and Mary came to visit my family in England and they both wanted to see everything, castles, big estates, etc. The fondest memory I have of her on their trip was seeing her play soccer in our back yard with my youngest son. She was laughing the entire time they were playing, making my son laugh too.

I shall miss her.
