“ Sorry to hear about Mark. I remember him from so long ago. He would still stop and visit once in a while. I always loved to visit over a cup of coffee. He was a great guy.

We passed by the accident scene on that Friday. I'm sad to learn that the victim was Mark. I worked at the public library for many years. Mark would come in in the evening. I remember him as a gentle, soft-spoken man, always kind and interesting. He was one of the library patrons I always looked forward to seeing. Your sad loss is also a loss for this community. So sorry.
