“ marty was a good freind and helped me out a lot growing up. We got to spend a lot of good times together often along with lil Cody at the time between fishing, deer hunting, snowmobiling or just what ever u were shure to have fun with marty. And when it come september and if u planned on coon hunting there was no better man to know then marty to either straiten out ur hound or get or new one cuz urs was still on a deer ten counties away lol. You will be missed cooner see you on the other side of lifes fence

“ When we were in kindergarten we built a big ship out of big wooden blocks and it had an anchor on a rope. I swung the anchor and caught Marty on the forehead and knocked him out and gave him this huge goose egg bruise. I felt awful!! Marty never forgot about it as did neither of our mothers!!
