“ Always remember the good times. Know that you have a Guardian Angel always watching over you. "Do not grieve for me as I am with my Maker and the loved ones gone before me. I am free from pain and in good hands. " I believe that these are the words that Marvin (Dad, brother, Grandpa, GreatGrampa is saying to each and everyone of you to hopefully help you heal as you remember the good times along with the bad. Just know that he loved each and everyone of you.

“ Very sorry for your loss. I know from experience you are never ready to lose a loved one. One Good thought is he can now resume his card games with my Dad. Jim Kepler. I know they had many before my dad left this earth. I will have you in my thoughts.
