“ Still missing you Mary, it saddens me to think there are more of my siblings in heaven than are left here on earth. I hope you guys are having fun, sometimes I thinking it will be great when we all get together again. We never got together enough. Love you baby sister!

“ Mary will truly be missed. I am glad she is not suffering anymore, but she will surely leave a hole in the hearts of the people who loved her most. I am blessed to have known her since I was 4 years old, and have gotten to know her children over the years. She has touched many lives. I only wish I could cook like her, she was the best!

“ I will miss you Mary, I remember sitting at the dinner table, Mary had so much food for everyone, no one left the table hungry, I remember at that time calling her Mom, that is how she treated everyone. Mary was a very loving person, very freindly to everyone. You will be missed dearly.

“ Although "Auntie Mary" was never officially related to me, she was the closest thing to an Aunt I've had growing up. She celebrated every milestone in my life - from birthdays, First Communion, graduations, to even my wedding. There are many things I'll never forget about her, but one thing that stands out right now is her station wagon packed with that red cooler full of yummy food to bring up north to visit my family throughout the past 30 years. I'm fortunate enough to get to live close to her daughter Marie (my sister-n-law) and her second grandson, Liam. I see a lot of her in both Marie and Liam, so her smiling eyes will live on. I'm sure she'll be watching over us from her well-deserved place in Heaven.

“ Mary and I have been sisters for 40 years, and I will miss her terribly. She used her God-given gift of hospitality to welcome hundreds of visitors to their home over the years, and even when visitors dropped in unexpectedly, she was gracious and kind and always made them welcome. We had many happy memories raising our kids, visiting back and forth, and taking trips together. Adversity seemed to make her stronger, as she dealt with her husband Carl's death, the breast cancer which ended up taking her from us, taking care of her sick mother-in-law during her own illness, and her siblings' passing. I only regret that we didn't live closer -we watched the "city" girl become a "country" girl who loved her home, family and friends. She was overjoyed to become a grandmother! Mary, I will see you in the Father's Kingdom some day. Rest in peace.

“ Mary Ann was one of the kindest people I have ever known. I'll always remember when she came with us on our family vacation to Walt Disney World back when I was a teenager. We will miss her, she has left us too soon but God is taking care of her now for she has earned a beautiful place with Him.

Love and prayers to her children and other family members as they go through this difficult time.

“ Just a few great memories with my dear friend Mary going out to eat for all our Birthdays having a delicious cake that Mary made with her coffee and playing bunco with all our friends watching movies in our pajamas always making sure we had plenty to eat even if we weren't hungry. Even when she was in the hospital she asked the nice nurse to get us a soda, or tea, or coffee we laughed. we had a lot and have a lot of wonderful memories we know she is free of pain and I'm sure she is so happy to see all her family but we will really miss her great and caring personality she always would help someone else but would never let anyone help her. We love you Mary And I'm sure you look very BEAUTIFUL in your Angle wings now you are OUR Gardian Angel we love and will really miss you Love you For-Ever KIM Remington
