“ I have known Neal for several decades. My fondest memory is playing softball for a team he sponsored. He treated everyone as if we were part of his family. After weekend tournaments we would either gather together at his house or a local establishment for an after game get together. It's hard to imagine the Ithaca area without Neal being part of it. Remember the many many great memories you have of him. He will always be in your hearts.

“ Such a good, good man. I remember Neal from days gone by when he was actively engaged in supporting--and at that time saving--the Richland Campus as he was head of a group called the Citizens Advisory Board. He and his wife were stalwarts in the community and have left their mark. They are now back together. May your many wonderful memories help ease your loss.

“ Neal was one of the first people that I met when I interviewed for the administrative assistant position for Ash Creek and Willow Valley Churches. Since my office was at Willow Valley, I would see Neal occasionally. I had a candy dish on my desk and I found out that his favorite candy was caramels. He will be missed, but now he rests in the Arms of Jesus, and is with Ruth.
