“ Aunt Norma helped me through some painful (at least I found them to be) medical procedures when I was an early grade schooler. I was in the hospital for an appendectomy. Because my appendix had been close to rupturing, the surgeons inserted a tube that had to be tugged out a bit several times a day. It hurt, a lot! After the first couple times, I decided that nobody could touch that tube until Aunt Norma could leave her medical post, come to my room, and let me hold her hand. I'm guessing those "clench marks" lasted a long, long time.

“ I am so sad to hear of Norma's passing. I always enjoyed talking to her.

Norma and Jim were our next door neighbors in Richland Center. In fact they purchased their house from my grandmother when I was very small. It was always fun to see them and hear about their trips in their camper. I remember their beagles Bonnie Lee and Silky Sullivan.

One of the last times I was in Richland Center I stopped by Norma's house and we had a very nice chat. A very nice friend.

I will miss you Norma.

“ A memory that I cherish the most is when Great Aunt Norma and Great Uncle James came down to Arizona to visit. We meet them at a Chinese food restaurant, I wore a blue silk shirt and Aunt Norma gave me a huge and she loved my shirt. I love you Aunt Norma you are in a better place and back together with Uncle James.

Love your Great nephew
