“ Pat was a very special man to many people and certainly that was true for the entire Syftestad family as we thoroughly enjoyed our weeks spent up north with him in recent years.

The first year he joined us most of us didn't really know him well and he came along as a good friend of my brother Mark's to be our skipper and fishing guide. Well, by the end of that first week I can tell you that he had endeared himself to each one of us. We all enjoyed our time in the boat with him - the poor guy spent more time putting on bait or taking fish off the hooks for the girls. He gave expert advice to my young son and has instilled an absolute love of fishing in him - I will be eternally grateful for his patience & kindness to Nathan who looked up to him and considered Pat a true fishing buddy. For others we bonded with Pat around the dinner table, campfire or on leisurely tours on the lake.

It was a special honor to be with Pat when he caught the big Muskie - proud as could be I think he could hardly believe it.

The only thing that made him prouder was his family and he loved each of you so much and told many, many stories of great times spent with you. And oh, how he loved to tell a story!! He was a true joy to be around and we thank you for sharing your very special husband, father & grandfather with our family as well. Trips up north will never be the same and we will miss him and cherish those memories. Please know that we are all thinking of you as you do the same.

With love from the Syftestad, Fruit & Pitlock families

“ Sending my deepest sympathies to Sharon, Mary, Mark, Donna, Diane, Steve and Pat's entire family. I was fortunate to visit with Pat in November at my Uncle Bud's wake. Pat's determination to connect with family spirit was contagious and his positive outlook was overwhelming with what he was facing. Love to all of you and God bless Pat Fenton.
