“ Dear Kenalyn and Family,
I am so sorry for the loss of your mother.
Although I only met her once, I have heard many of her stories and know what a wonderful woman she was.
She raised some really great kids, who in turn have raised great kids of their own. Your mom leaves a precious legacy of family love and support.
I know her loss is going to be very hard, that you will all miss her deeply. She was a wonderful woman, a great mom & grandma.
Those qualities will live on forever in all of you she has left behind for now.
You will meet again. She has just gone on ahead for now.
My Prayers are with you all.

“ My condolences to the family and friends at this difficult time. As Rae Jean has become an angel in heaven she leaves me with beautiful hand written letters, notes and cards that I will cherish. She amazed me at how much time she took to share personal messages to me! It always meant so much to me to know that she cared that much to send not only myself, but my grandmother, and my mother lovely letters. To take that time in the busy life she had was a true inspiration to me. Those cards, letters, and notes are all kept and cherished as a memory for me until I see her again. I'm so very glad we named our oldest daughter, Ashley Rae, to keep the name Rae in our hearts forever.

Our prayers are with all of you at this time!

Love,

Bill, Suzanne, Ashley, Kyle, and Troy Graff

“ Ms. Rae Jean... I was so greatfull and blessed that I got to meet you. I loved the little chats we used to have when I would come up to Rockbridge and listen to you at your table. Just watching you make things and hearing about stories about Greg and Jerrod... When Jim told me about you and how wonderful you are he was way off when I finally did meet you. You are beyond wonderful and I am glad that you were apart of my life. Jim came to see you when you were in the hospital. It was hard for him, he didn't like to see you in pain. You passed on his birthday and I said that maybe you did it because he was always a pain in your arse :) and this way she will always be apart of his life. Well we both are at ease knowing you are no longer in pain and in a GREAT place. You will be missed so much but you will never, never be forgotten... We LOVE YOU!!!!
