“ God looked around His garden And found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth And saw your tired face. He put his arms around you And lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful He always takes the best. He saw the road was getting rough And the hills were hard to climb, So He closed your weary eyelids And whispered "Peace be thine". - RIP Randy, it was very sad to find this obituary online. My prayers and thoughts are deeply extended to your family.

“ Randall was so proud of his house as he gave me and my friend the grand tour showing us little details where he had put his personal touch on it. He also was very proud of his "bargain" boat and made extra sure that I went to see the it's special name. For some reason he thought I should take away a "special" meaning from it. I have no idea what he meant by that. He was very playful that day. I thought he was really sweet.

“ I had the pleasure of talking with Randy through my work. He was a very nice man and always made me laugh on the phone. My first time talking with him he was talking about how it was cold and he wished it was warm so he could go out on his boat. He described the boat to me, you could tell he loved it. I remember telling him that he could still go on his boat to go fishing, but it would be ice fishing. He told me that he was not a fan of ice fishing, I told him that I had never been ice fishing. He then invited to take me ice fishing. I enjoyed talking with him and I am truly sad to hear about his passing. It was a pleasure to work with him.
