“ Ray was a wonderful person!! I loved talking to him about antiques and loved listening to his stories... He had such a sense of humor. We had a really nice little birthday party for him this past year at Bunnys bar on Saturday morning with all of our coffee clutch friends. He seemed so happy and appreciated it so much!! We will all miss him on our Saturday mornings for our coffee and conversation!!! We will think of you always Ray!! Thank You for being a part of our lives!!!

“ Ray was such a character! I met him years ago while bartending at the old VFW in Richland Center. Met up with him a few times at auctions. He always had a smile and a story. May your memories help you through.
