“ A few years back, I wasn't able to get off the porch and explore my surroundings due to an accident. Dick stopped by one morning, talked for a while and then went on his way. The following day, his mom's ramp made its way up to my house, and with his supervision, the ramp was hooked up to the porch and my view of the world improved greatly (in more ways than one). Thank you to Dick for his act of kindness.
