

Sam S. Saviano

October 26, 1940 - August 28, 2020

Sam S. Saviano, age 79, of Muscoda, passed away peacefully at his home on Friday, August 28, 2020. He was born October 26, 1940, in Chicago Heights, IL, the son of Ernest Sr. and Jennie M. (De Pasquale) Saviano. He worked most of his adult life as a steel worker and union official. When he retired from the steel mill he opened a small jewelry store in the same area. Sam moved to Wisconsin in 2000 to be near his family.

He is survived by his daughter, Genni (Francis) Kleckner of rural Muscoda; grandchildren, John (Katie McKinney) Kleckner of Richland Center, Jake (Katie) Kleckner of Gotham; great grandchildren, Grace McKinney, Jackson Kleckner, Julian and Jordan Kleckner; a brother, Ernest Saviano Jr.; other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest Saviano Sr. and Jennie Saviano; a brother, Robert Saviano.

A special thank you to Sam's caregivers: Debbra Portwine, Katie McKinney-Kleckner, Darlene Heron, Jennifer Kinnison and Kaitlyn Mitchell. Thank you: Upland Hills Hospice, Richland Hospital, Dr. Bard and Clary Memorial Funeral Home.

A celebration of Sam's life will be held at a later date. The Clary Memorial

Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

“ Sam was a friend and an all-around good guy.

He passed on a lot of life lesson nuggets over our many chats. Sam was a smart & shrewd businessman, Taught me about selling jewelry and how to figure profit margins and markups, etc,

“ We are sorry to hear of Sam’s passing. He was a beautiful person and was loved by so many. My husband worked in the Golden Bowl Resturante that Sam visited often. I still have all of the jewelry he sold us. Sam loved to Tease my husband for buying VCR boxes full of bricks. “How’s the chimney business going “ . Our deepest condolences to the family.
