“ My deepest condolences to Sharon’s family. I am shocked to see this! Sharon prepared my taxes for many years, but we also got along well and would talk forever about our cats or dogs, and she would tell me about what her kids and grandkids were up to. She was the nicest lady. So very sorry to hear this. Rest In Peace Sharon

“ My deepest sympathy to Sharon's family. Sharon and I were co-workers for many years. She then became, not only our trusted tax preparer, but a dear friend. Although our social interaction was few and far between, when we did get together, we always shared stories about the main thing we had in common, and loved to talk about, sometimes for hours; each others children and grandchildren. The pride and joy of her life. She was such a patient, loving, and understanding mother and grandma. She will be dearly missed by all. - Denise Ewing

“ I only had the opportunity to meet Sharon once. That one meeting involved most of her family by her side and the love she obviously held for them. We pray you find solace in the beautiful memories you all must have and peace in knowing she's now Home waiting for you all in time.
