“ Hi, I did not know mr. Dilley, but I do know Dillon Louis, his relative, and Dillon comes from very good stock. I have a high regard for Dillon, and I like to say "the apple doesn't fall far from the tree". Also, since I'm very old, I can say this and people better like it. Either way Dillon, please receive my condolences, as your loss is shared by me, Jim Kauss

“ A memory that I will always remember:
My Dad and Uncle Stan took me pheasant hunting for the first time. I cant remember how old I was, but I remember thinking the corn stalks where half way to the sky. The two mighty hunters didn't harvest any birds so they decided to let me shoot the shot gun for my first time. They found some cans and stood them up on a tree limb and gave me instructions. I do vividly remembering the only can that hit the ground was mine. They thought that was quite humorous.
They decided that they had to bring wild game home so my Mom and Aunt wouldn't be upset that we were gone all day. The all mighty hunters stopped at a farm and bought two rabbits and cleaned them.
My Uncle Stan: Humble and Kind
I will miss you.
