“ My condolences to the family. Steve was one of my trainers when I first started working at Allen-Bradley, when Peggy and he were dating. We got to be good friends and my family got one of Steve's golden retrievers when she was a puppy. Lady was a wonderful dog. I also worked with Stevie for awhile. I found that Stevie followed in his father's footsteps, in that they both treated others kindly and were down-to-earth kind of people. I have always thought of Steve as a good friend, and I will think of him often. He will be missed! ”

“ Sorry to hear about Steve. I used to talk to him at work quite a bit about hunting, guns, and other stuff. He was a nice guy and always helpful. I think he worked at Allen Bradley/Rockwell for 40 years or more. My sympathies to the family.

“ Whenever I think of Uncle Steve, I think of his laugh. Or chuckle I think is more accurate. That is a pretty great association if you ask me.
