“ When I would go to Uncle Tom and Eleanore's farm for the summer, Cousin Billie and I would ride the calves as if they were horses that needed broken. Oh my, when Uncle Tom caught us he would get furious. But that was where I got my first driving lesson. That was where I got to savor cow brains and tongue among other cuisine. It was always quite an adventure going there for the summer. Billie was a farm fun loving cousin and I developed a love for the country because of those summer vacations.

*To the family of Thomas William Cunningham we are surely saddened by his death. Life is so short and likely he too if he could, would say 'life just flew by'. When we are young, it seems 50/60/70 years were an old aged person. Partly because God intended us to live as long as Adam and Eve could have and would have if they had been obedient. Jesus said "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" Thomas was not perfect, surely one who tried to do what was right. By all means not and 'unrighteous' person. We loved him and will miss his presence in the future. From the family of his Uncle Leslie Shuster

I was so very sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He was one of the kindest ,gentlest person, a good friend and we will miss hiim. Deepest sympathy to all his family. We had a few road trips together when we were young, he brought me on my first trip to DeSoto where I was married and have lived ever since. We long for the promise of Jehovah and his son to put to end suffering and death and to bring back to life all those in the memorial tombs. We have comfort in the promises such as Job 14:14,15. With our love and sympathy, Rick and Patti Frakes
