

Timothy A. Banker

September 15, 1978 - September 11, 2023

Timothy Alan “Tim” Banker, 44, of Stratford, Iowa, died in Hamilton County, Iowa on Monday, September 11, 2023. He was born on September 15, 1978, in Richland Center, WI, the son of Terrance “Terry” and Linda (Claude) Banker. He was “born again” on May 19, 1985 when he was baptized by his dad at Park Street Christian Church in Richland Center, WI. He was a 1997 graduate of Kickapoo High School and attended Crossroads College/Minnesota Bible College in Rochester, MN. When he was younger Tim travelled extensively throughout the country. Tim was active in 4-H showing both sheep and cattle at the Richland County Fair. While in high school he wrestled and played football. He was also active in school musicals. Tim loved the outdoors and shooting his favorite guns. He would often send pictures of his latest targets to his dad and brothers. He built a couple of “AR” rifles. He also collected knives, swords and other sharp things. Tim enjoyed reading and discussing what he read, always striving for a better understanding of what he had read. He also enjoyed playing cribbage and would play anyone at any time. If you didn’t know how to play, he would teach you. He also enjoyed wearing flannel shirts, and fedoras. So, if you have either and would like to wear it to his service, please do!

“ My memory is of Tim babysitting my girls with his best friend in high school...the two of them taught my girls to burp on command then to burp the alphabet. I always knew my girls were going to have a good time and be looked after, no matter what mischief the two of them thought up to do with my 3 girls. I am very sad that a good person has passed away at such a young age. He was truly a good person.
