“ I knew of Tim's passing last summer, and out of nowhere today a picture of him that I had gotten somewhere popped up on my computer at work. I still think of Tim occasionally, he was a great person, always with a colorful story to share! Some of my best laughs were from the stories he told. He's missed by those he left behind, and his friendship while we worked together was appreciated! Keep 'em smiling!

“ I am so sorry to hear about the recent passing of Tim McNamer. I had the opportunity to get to know him while I worked at Town & Country Electric/Faith Technologies. In fact, I was the Recruiter that hired him. He was always a very friendly, optimistic person with a great sense of humor. He will be missed by all that knew him.

“ Oh Tim, your wild heart and mischievous attitude will be deeply missed. I loved working w/ you at Faith Technologies and your cubicle was always the one to hind in if I needed a good talk. You always welcomed everyone w/ open arms and your contagious laugh is something I will hold on to. Your soul was pure because like you said, "I just keep moving forward". I remember many times you either counseling me or me lecturing you on our crazy lives. I am blessed to have known you and know that all angels watch over us. Keep smiling up there!

“ To Tim’s Family and Friends: You and Tim have been in my thoughts since hearing of the sad news of Tim’s death. As an athlete, a jokester, and a friend, Tim helped create a litany of happy memories for me from middle school and high school. On the football field and the wrestling mat, Tim’s intensity was unmatched. I will never forget Tim’s fearlessness in kicking off the football, racing down the field and torpedoing himself headlong into a ball carrier, sometimes coming up a bit woozy, but always with the ball carrier worse for wear, and always with him ready to do it again with no hesitation. Tim could turn off that intensity though, like there was a switch, and turn into the friend and jokester that appealed to so many. Tim was a great classmate and these were good times creating memories that I will always cherish. From reading the other thoughts and memories posted here, Tim obviously touched many in the same way throughout his life. It is your own cherished memories that I hope help assuage the grief caused by his untimely passing. You have my deepest sympathies.

“ Although nothing we say can take away the pain of losing someone so suddenly and much too soon, my thoughts and prayers are with Tim's family and his many friends. He is one of the funniest, loving people I know and has such a big heart. I met Tim more than 15 years ago through mutual friends and then, much to my surprise ended up working with him for 5 years. He made work a little more interesting and a Monday lunch with him was a must if he went back to RC the weekend before. Many people have already said it and I truly believe that heaven is much brighter now that they've been blessed with his presence.

“ Tim, the world is going to be a bit darker without your bright spirit. I often thought about Tim through the years when I saw something that I thought would appeal to his sense of humor. I can still hear his laugh and picture that big smile. There were times when I was down and I wished I could have one of our "slumber parties" where we would rent movies, talk about life 'till the wee hours, or sometimes take a 2 am drive through the countryside. I always thought I would run into him in town some day. I wish I had made the effort to make that happen.
I will miss you always.

“ To the family of Tim:
First of all, I am so sorry of your loss. No matter what I say or anyone else says does not change the reality of your pain. Only time will heal the loss you are experiencing. My memories of Tim were in junior high school and high school. Heausw made class just a little more fun, and not so boring. I guess you could definitely call him our class clown. You knew if he was in the room the time spent was going to be more exciting. I did not talk with him much after high school, but the time I did know him was something that will last a lifetime. I am praying and thinking of your family. Please know that you are in my thoughts.

“ It so hard to find the right words that express my sorrow for his loss. It's feels so unfair to have lost someone so loved by so many. I took my yearbook out and started remembering all the people who have come in and out of my life; Tim was definitely a bright light in a sometime unbearable high school day. He was taken to soon and heaven is definitely so lucky to have him. I can only give his friends and family my prayers and well wishes. Tim was loved by so many; every life he touched is better of for having had him in their lives.

“ Tim was a wonderful addition to my class with his good-hearted humor and compassion for other students. I always loved that mischief in those big brown eyes, because Tim knew that fun was to be enjoyed with the teacher, not in spite of her, which is why we got on so well. He was always there to help another classmate find a smile during a bad time. He quite simply brought joy wherever he went and Heaven will be an even happier place because of him. My sympathy to his family and friends who feel this loss.

“ My heart is aching. I will cherish the smiles and laughs that Tim brought to my life. My fondest memories are of the fun summers spent together amongst friends...trips to Lake Redstone, ballgames, parties that he was always the life of.....I would love to see that smile one more time again!

One day my friend....until then you will be greatly missed but you will always live on in the hearts of many! My thoughts are with your family and friends during this most difficult time. I wish I could be there today to celebrate your life.

With Love,

“ To the McNamer and Killoy families and to all the lives Tim touched. My heart and my prayers go out to you. Tim was a wonderful person with a bright smile. My first memories of Tim are back at the RC pool every summer. The fun we had swimming and the memories watching him and the gang play ball. He will be greatly missed by many. Heaven is a little brighter place with him shining above us all. I'm sure up there, he is making someone smile or laugh... that's the Tim I remember... R.I.P. Tim....

“ I met Tim through friends in school and when he dated my sister. He indeed was always full of laughter and would share that with everyone. I will always remember when we were at a party outside of RC and the cops of course found it and Tim drank a bottle of dial soap and passed the breathalyzer so we could get out there! Later, he began to puke up nothing but BUBBLES!!! Thanks Tim for the memories....now spread your laughter in heaven!

“ To the family of Tim who was a very funny, loveable, and caring person. Highschool would not have been the same without Tim showing up or the little parties we had at Lake Redstone and etc. Tim, you will be very sadly missed and God has taken you too soon away from your family and friends. The memories we will all cherish and you will never ever be forgotten. Miss you.

“ Tim was one of the most unique people I've ever met. He could hold the attention of a whole room of people with his antics and comedy acts! He had a huge one-of-a-kind sense of humor. But Tim was so much more than that. He made everyone he spent time with feel like they were the only one in the room. He made them feel special but he never seemed to realize how special he was. There was always a little hint of sadness hidden behind those big brown eyes and that gorgeous smile.

One thing I will miss forever are our long talks. He was deep and honest and he held nothing back. And he was a very loyal friend. My heart hurts because that boy deserved so much out of life, but the life he had he lived to the fullest. He will always hold a piece of my heart and I will always hold my memories of him close. Love you Tim! Until I see you again...

“ Tim, the world is officially a less interesting place to be without you. We had some "far out" conversations about politics, conspiracy theories and Nicole's bizarre behavior ;) Whenever I needed your help hitting a deadline, you made it happen.....and somehow you managed to smile (most of the time) while doing it. I've missed you at work, but now this is so final and I wish we could have had one last chance to BS. I was lucky to have known you, but Heaven is lucky to have you! Until we meet again....

I don't think there was ever a time I was around Tim that he didn't have everyone in stitches! What a character! Though we didn't see each other often after school- when we did, it was as though no time had passed at all.
