“ *I loved horses, from the time I could walk. My mother never fussed about such a dangerous sport, even as I got hurt several times...But I must add that she saw never real fond of the horses. I only saw her ride one time and that was on my paint mare Patches when I was 17...around in a circle and off..she had enough. She did have a special place in her heart for the colt of Patches whom I named Cherokee (Cherry) and she used baby talk on him all the time. Was a funny and fantastic memory. Love you mom. Miss you. “ My mother was a lovely lady. She was strong and intelligent and a positive, productive woman. She taught me how to work hard and take pride in whatever I did. Nothing ever really bothered her and I'm glad she is finally at peace and in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ where I know I shall see her again. My sister Sally was such a treasure to her in the last months of her life and gave her love and care and attention. God bless her for all she did for a lady who gave so much.

“ Wanda (mom) was a kind, gentle wife and mother and will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. She had such a positive impact on her family and friends, and had joyously traveled widely in her younger days, living life to the fullest. She was brave and courageous for many years in battling a debilitating disease until the very end. I take great comfort in knowing she's entered a well-deserved rest in the presence of God, and that I will see her again one day, whole and well.

Love you mom!

“ I remember my Aunt Wanda as a very friendly and caring person. Mel and Wanda and the girls always lived a distance from my family, but whenever we got together they were always glad to see us, and interested in what had been happening in our families. I'm sad to see her gone now, and wish the best for Mel, Sally, Sherry, Sara and their families.

Love,

Fred Kelley, (nephew, son of Bonnie)

Grandma Wanda was the greatest to me. She was intelligent, well-dressed, hard-working, and really good at remaining calm and objective if there was ever a conflict. She was a true Vandervort to the very end, dignified and polite to all around her. I am beyond sad that grammy is not with us anymore. There is truly a hole in my heart that my memories are working overtime to fill. My love and best wishes to Sally, Mom (Sherry), Sara and Grandpa, Mel.

*Love,
